About Cookies (Edlevo App)

The application uses cookies to provide you with the best possible user experience. When you log in, a session cookie is created to store your login information for the duration of your session. The session cookie is deleted when you close the application. By continuing to use the application, you accept the use of cookies.